VALICOUOT CLUB Ginger Ale is used exclusively in leading eastern hospitals, not for curative properties but because it has been analyzed and found absolutely pure and wholesome and because it is a good drink. There is no better way to prove the purity of Clicquot Club than by analysis; and we court and invite analysis by physicians and chemists.

the ginger extract which we use, thus relieving the ginger of its constipating quality. We use the best granulated cane sugar, no bluing being used to whiten it and it is refined with special care. We use the real oils of limes and lemons and not the chemical substitutes for them.

We use no preservative whatever and none of the coal tar or other "chemical" preparations. The water-from Clicquot Springs-is crystalclear and pure.
